Date of Death: May 18, 2017

Funeral services for Lloyd Dagit, 78, of Jefferson, will be held at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, May 30, 2017 at First Baptist Church in Jefferson. Interment will be at Dawson Twp. Cemetery near Paton.

The family will visit with friends from 5:00 – 8:00pm Sunday, May 28, 2017 at Slininger-Schroeder Funeral Home, Jefferson.

Lloyd Earl Dagit was born July 18, 1938 in Pekin, Illinois to Titus and Ethel (Mullins) Dagit. He had three older siblings: Iva Jo, Wilma, and Ray. When Lloyd was three years old, they moved to a farm outside of Paton, Iowa near Ethel's father. Lloyd attended rural school and later the Paton town school.

On April 18, 1959, Lloyd married Gloria Scroggins. To this union six children were born: Randy, Daniel, Brian, Keven, Kecia, and Teresa. The family lived in several locations while Lloyd worked in various different jobs. When Ideal Manufacturing closed, Lloyd started his own moving business called Dagit's Moving. Transporting people's possessions took him to nearly every state in the union. He also had the Trading Post Store in Jefferson, and went to auctioneering school. He operated Dagit Auction Service in Jefferson. He especially loved the moving and auctioning.

Lloyd loved his church, First Baptist Church, in Jefferson. He took three months off from his moving business to help build the current First Baptist Church building in 1989. He knew just about everything about the building and church practices. When a question came up that others couldn't answer, the response was, "Ask Lloyd."

He enjoyed deer hunting and cooking all parts of the animal in different ways. He loved to cook the heart, tongue, liver, etc., and serve it to people and not tell them what it was! He liked experimenting with anything. He'd bring home the results of his experiments to Gloria and loved to see her reactions. If a particular experiment failed, it would quickly go in the trash and no one else would know.

Lloyd's greatest joy came from his family: sharing and watching all of them grow into fine adults.

Lloyd loved spending time at his building, it was his second home. He spent countless hours tinkering at the building. The family joked that Lloyd lived at the building and slept at the house, but we all knew he even napped at the building. The family has some peace knowing he died doing what he loved and where he loved to be.

Lloyd Dagit died May 18, 2017 at the age of 78 years. He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters Patty and Wilma; brother-in-law Eugene Muir; three of his children—Daniel Craig, Kecia Gay, and Keven Kim; and a grandson, Jason.

Survivors include his wife, Gloria Dagit of Jefferson, IA; two sons: Randy (Carolyn) Dagit of Bentonville, Ark; Brian (Karen) Dagit of Rogers Ark; daughter: Teresa (Chad) Lansman of Grand Junction, IA; 10 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; a brother, Ray Dagit of Paton, IA; a sister, Iva Jo Muir of Rippey, IA; other relatives and friends. Memorials for the family may be left at Slininger-Schroeder Funeral Home, Jefferson.

“ I will always remember Lloyd and his joking, and kidding around. But he was always there to help. First thing I think of is a family reunion at Prairie Meadows when we had such a good attendance and all of Lloyds family was there. Everyone swimming in the pool. A very happy memory!

“ I came to know and appreciate Lloyd almost 50 long years ago. He always impressed me with his sweetness and patience even as he endured the most horrific and haunting tragedy that life can offer a father. I hope this good man can rest in peace now.

“ So sorry to hear about Lloyd. I had the privilege of working with him many many years ago. He was always willing to help a newbie with the correct procedures and how to avoid the ones that did not make sense, He was one of the really good ones! RIP old friend.

“ Lloyd's passing deeply saddens me. My In-laws, Jean and Swede Davis, both deceased, we're good friends with Lloyd and Gloria. I met Lloyd about 35 years ago. From the moment I met him I knew he was an honest, sincere and caring man. He welcomed me into the Jefferson IA family. When Carol and I went to visit Jean and Swede I made sure one of my stops was to see Lloyd. I loved going to his auction house. He and I could talk and he was always interested in what I was doing. He was a proud man. I looked up to him. I last saw Lloyd last December. Carol and I went to visit him at his home. Our hearts and prayers go out to Gloria and the rest of his family. I'll miss you Lloyd, and when I get to Jefferson I'll stop by and visit like we always did. God has a special place for you. You were a special man and to me you always will be.
